

DOWAGIAC UNABLE TO SOLVE MURDERS

Officers Without Clues in Monroe Case—Arndt Leaves Hospital.

(By Staff Correspondent.) DOWAGIAC, Mich., Oct. 4.—Not a single tangible clue that would lead to the identity of the slayer of Will Monroe, his wife Mary and daughter Neva, who were clubbed to death as they lay asleep in their home on the night of Sept. 17, has been brought to light despite constant efforts of four detectives working on the case in co-operation with Sheriff Sherman Wyman.

County authorities for the past several days have been running down every possible clue, but the search has led them nowhere in the quest for the slayer.

IRELAND READY FOR PEACE OR FOR WAR

Sinn Feiners Drill Troops for Fighting, While Discussing Parley.

DUBLIN, Oct. 4.—Sinn Fein Ireland is ready today either for war or peace. Preparations are under way. While the cabinet members, headed by Eamonn De Valera are working out the details of the program which the Sinn Fein envoys will present to the peace parley in London next week, the military wing of the organization is training the Irish republican army and keeping up its morale for operations in the field.

The Irish delegation is prepared to leave Dublin Saturday and will be in London in time to spend all of Monday in conference among themselves before the parley opens at 10 Downing st. on Tuesday. The Irish republican army is being trained in the mountains of Dublin and a review was held Monday.

WOMAN BLUE BEARD FACES COURT GRILL

Bar Husband of Idaho Woman From Testimony Hearing on Murder Court.

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Oct. 4.—Alone behind three bars which act as her counsel, her face drawn from the trying ordeal, her lips colorless, her eyes searching faces of witnesses and jurors, Mrs. Lydia Southard, alleged woman blue beard, is hearing today the testimony by which her guilt or innocence of murdering her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, is to be determined.

Her mother, nerves shattered by the early days of the trial is ill at home. Her husband, fifth man to whom she has been bound in wedlock, and her faithful spouse, was barred from the room.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble THURSDAY, OCT. 6. This promises to be a day of conflicting influences according to the astrological map of the heavens. While the luminaries are in good aspect, indicating advancement and excellent opportunities, especially for those in the employment of others, yet the inimical position of the benefic planet Mars points to the danger of self-defeat through the likelihood of giving away to quarrels and bad temper. Irritability and strife may have the force to undo the predicted good fortune. This impetuosity may lead to the domestic circle.

YANKS AND GIANTS TO OPEN CONTEST FOR WORLD 'CHAMP'

Officers Without Clues in Monroe Case—Arndt Leaves Hospital.

(Continued from page one) history of the game, the two local teams possess both the color and personality for a sensational and thrilling series. It will be, however, more individual team or combination feature play, and this, in some respects, is expected to heighten the glamor of the clash when the clubs swing into action.

Regardless of the question of individual brilliancy against mechanical playing perfection, the fact remains that never in the history of Greater New York's participation in the world series has the interest in the outcome been so keen. Twice before have the Giants and the Yankees met on the home diamonds in the past season series of 1910 and 1914.

PROBE 'INVISIBLE' OF TEXAS MYSTICS

Officials Announce They'll Stop Next Masked Parade With a Machine Gun.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 4.—"Unseen eyes of the invisible empire" faced a challenge from Texas authorities—the first real opposition in the state—today. Closely following the riot at Lorena where several men including Sheriff "Bob" Buchanan were wounded, and the arraignment of masked activities by Judge Hamilton in charging the Austin grand jury to investigate a second time, Chief of Police Mussey and Sheriff Tobin of San Antonio met rumors of a Ku Klux Klan parade with the ultimatum it cannot be held.

"I'll use a machine gun if necessary to stop a parade in which marchers wear masks," Tobin declared. Simultaneously a second grand jury investigation of the Klan in this county was ordered by Judge S. G. Taylor of the 45th district court.

Sees Bright Future For Notre Dame Publication; Assign Various Features

Officials Announce They'll Stop Next Masked Parade With a Machine Gun.

"The Notre Dame football team, by hard work and consistent plugging, has no rival. Some of us say it is not equalled. The members of the editorial board of the Notre Dame Scholastic can take a lesson by that. By doing their ever best they can make the Scholastic the best school publication in the country."

This was the word of Rev. J. Leonard Carrico, C.S.C., dean of the school of arts and letters, to the members of the Scholastic staff at the University of Notre Dame in the first of the meetings of the year, probably will make the next address.

DEFENDS U. S. SHIPS IN MERCHANT FLEET

Agreements Between Americans and British are Told to Senators.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Operating agreements between the International Mercantile Marine Co., an American corporation, and the British government did not affect the company's American flag ships even before the drafting of a supplementary agreement requested by the shipping board P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, told members of the board at a special meeting here Tuesday.

"During 19 years of operating under these agreements," Mr. Franklin said, "we have never been interfered with by the British government in the management of our ships and no restraint of any kind has been placed upon us."

CONTRIBUTIONS

By Mrs. Fred Elbel. In the history of the development of the human race special tribute is paid to the patrons of art and culture.

A community is fortunate indeed if among its wealthy residents there may be found also those of generous impulses ready to share their advantages of travel and study with others.

When the doors of Mrs. M. V. Beiger's Mishawaka home are opened to the members of the art department of the Progress Club Thursday afternoon the good will and generosity of the owner will again be demonstrated.

Art Poster Competition is Closed at the High School

Word of the death of Dr. E. L. Mooney, who died at his home in Syracuse, N. Y., early Saturday morning was received Tuesday morning.

Judges were selected from the business firms of W. W. Dunkle, Lampert-McDonald Co. and Deleury & Reader. Many splendid designs were offered and it was difficult to make a choice. The "avenue idea" guided the judges in their final decision.

Designs of the three winners will be exhibited in the show window of Frank Mayer, Jr., local jeweler, this morning. Other designs of special merit submitted in the contest will be displayed in various shop windows on Michigan st. today.
